

APRIL 29, 2020, 12:23 PM ET

Kyle Richards' Dining Room Is So Incredibly Glamorous

The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills mom is eating in style inside her Encino mansion.

BY COURTNEY THOMPSON

Kyle Richards' gorgeous Encino mansion oozes opulence. Purchased in 2017 for $8.25 million—today it's valued at $9.26 million!—the 10,600-square-foot manse includes seven bedrooms, eight bathrooms, and some seriously cool spaces. Like the dramatic sitting room, for instance. Or the striking marble fireplace... which is one of eight fireplaces in the home! There's also that incredibly formal entryway, the fancy office and, oh yeah, the world's most gorgeous backyard.

So we weren't surprised to discover that when Kyle gave a peek inside her home's dining room, it too was incredibly glamorous. Anchored by an enormous table made of one piece of naturally-shaped wood, the room is flooded with natural light thanks to a wall of paned windows overlooking the home's property. Kyle accented the table with 14 chairs—yes, 14 chairs!—in a light gray textured fabric.

The most eye-catching detail in the room, however, is the stunning brass chandelier hanging above the table. Comprising more than a dozen brass spheres strung together via metal rods, the chandelier dominates the overhead space and is practically a piece of art! Fear not though, the room has that, too. Flanking the table on a far wall is a giant canvas in bright hues.

Photo: Kyle Richards/Instagram

Kyle's decorating the space with a giant bouquet of spring flowers housed in a matching brass urn — something tells us that that even Lisa Vanderpump would approve!

Want more Real Housewives of Beverly Hills? New episodes air every Wednesday at 8/7c or catch up on this season through the Bravo app.